ELIZABETH HAVENS JOINS DAVID BARRETT PARTNERS' NEW YORK OFFICE

David Barrett Partners, a leading international boutique executive search firm specializing in investment and wealth management, is pleased to announce that Elizabeth Havens is joining their New York office.

New York City (July 24, 2015) – David Barrett Partners (DBP) is pleased to announce that Elizabeth Havens has joined the firm in their New York Office. Elizabeth comes from a boutique search firm where she co-led the firm's asset and private wealth management practice. During her tenure, she placed senior investment and distribution professionals at both boutique and global firms.

Upon Elizabeth's joining the team, managing partner David Barrett noted, "Elizabeth is an outstanding search professional whose alternatives and wealth management industry experience will be very accretive to our team. We are delighted to have Elizabeth on board and look forward to the contributions she will make to the continued success of our clients."

"I'm excited to join such a well-known and respected firm," said Elizabeth Havens. "This is a great opportunity for me to work alongside many of the best recruiters in the industry and to help continue to build the firm's reputation globally".

Elizabeth spent over ten years within investment management, most recently as a founding member and Vice President of Busara Advisors, an investment firm which advised and invested in emerging manager hedge funds. She played a dual role and was responsible for establishing relationships with pension funds, endowments, foundations and investment consultants, as well as worked with the Chief Investment Officer to source and analyze hedge funds.

Prior to Busara, Elizabeth worked in Morgan Stanley's Private Wealth Division in San Francisco where she advised high net-worth families and individuals on all aspects of wealth preservation, financial planning and trust and estate preparation. Elizabeth began her career at Goldman Sachs in New York in the Portfolio Advisory Division and spent time in Investment Research, Real Estate Principal Investing and Private Wealth Divisions.

Elizabeth holds an MBA from the Wharton School of Business and a BA in Political Economics (magna cum laude) from Barnard College/Columbia University. She is a recipient of both the Goldman Sachs Scholarship for Excellence Award and Morgan Stanley's MBA Fellowship.
