BOB GOROG JOINS DAVID BARRETT PARTNERS' BOSTON OFFICE

David Barrett Partners, a leading international boutique executive search firm specializing in investment and wealth management, is pleased to announce that Bob Gorog is joining their Boston office as Partner.

New York City (April 15, 2015) – David Barrett Partners (DBP) is pleased to announce that Bob Gorog has been named a Partner joining the firm's Boston partners, John Knapp and Anne Keyser. With this move, Bob rejoins a core team of professionals in our New York, Boston and London offices with whom he previously worked in the Asset & Wealth Management Practice at Heidrick & Struggles.

Upon Bob's joining the team, managing partner David Barrett noted, "This is an exciting time for our firm. We could not be more pleased to be partnering with Bob again. Anne Keyser in Boston, Tory Hyndman in London, Darryl Adachi in New York and I all worked with him at Heidrick. We are delighted to have Bob on board and look forward to the contributions he will make to the continued success of our clients."

"This is a sort of coming home for me." said Bob Gorog. "I am truly excited to be part of a world class boutique exclusively dedicated to the investment industry with a like-minded client focused team of both new and former colleagues."

Bob Gorog has over 25 years of executive recruiting experience dedicated exclusively to the investment management industry. Bob's core work focuses on recruiting investment and distribution leaders for traditional and alternative investment firms worldwide. He has a long track record of success recruiting chief investment officers, asset class heads, lead portfolio managers and research professionals across asset classes, as well as building out distribution organizations. Within distribution he specializes in recruiting heads of sales, marketing and product groups, along with extensive work in sales, consultant relations and relationship management.

Prior to David Barrett Partners, Bob spent eight years as a partner in the Asset & Wealth Management and specialty Hedge Fund Practices of CT Partners in Boston and was a Partner for eight years in the Asset & Wealth Management Practice of Heidrick & Struggles. Earlier in his career he helped establish the Boston search practice for AT Kearney and two financial services boutiques.

He is an active speaker on career management for the CFA Institute and the Boston Security Analyst Society. Bob received a BA in economics from Boston College.
